

Declaration to establish the status of manuscripts submitted to Parallèles to be considered for publication

The aim of this declaration is to establish the status of manuscripts that are submitted to Parallèles to be considered for publication. A manuscript will not be reviewed until this declaration has been duly completed, signed and uploaded to the OJS-platform.

Information on the submission, peer review and publishing process is available online.¹

Publication of the manuscript is contingent upon a positive response from the journal's reviewers.

The manuscript being submitted for peer review and, potentially, publication in Parallèles is entitled:

The author and signatory of this document:

declares to be the author of the article and to not have ceded any related rights to a third party declares to have obtained all necessary authorization from the holders of rights to any works that have been reproduced, in full or in part, in the article (illustrations, graphics, tables, and any other element subject to copyright protection);

undertakes to grant Parallèles the right of first publication of the article, while reserving the right to subsequently publish it elsewhere, including in another language or format (e.g. in paper form);

undertakes to not grant a third party any rights that may in any way interfere with this agreement.

The author also declares that the submitted manuscript:

is not being considered, in full or in part, for publication elsewhere, and will not be as long as the Parallèles review process is ongoing;

is not being published elsewhere;

has not already been published elsewhere, in full or in part;

is not a translation or an adaptation of an article that has been published elsewhere, in full or in part.

Liability clause:

The author shall be liable to Parallèles for any damage suffered by the latter as a result of the submission and/or distribution of the article that is the object of this agreement and, more generally, for any violation of the author's obligations under this agreement.
